

Area School Teachers at Conference

The Harbor Section of the Association for Early Childhood Education were hosts for a biennial study conference for the southern section of the CACE association. The conference was held on Saturday, Nov. 3, at the Los Angeles Harbor Junior College and Wilmington Junior High School.

The theme "That All Children May Learn—" was introduced by Dr. May Gowan, Department of Education, University of California, Los Angeles, and Dr. Louise Seyler, associate superintendent of instructional services, Los Angeles City Schools.

Approximately 750 participants from San Diego to Santa Barbara went to respective study areas. Outstanding educators served as leaders and resource personnel. Georgiana Hardy, member of the Los Angeles Board of Education, gave a meaningful and well accepted address at the general session after a luncheon at the Wilmington Junior High School on "Does Society Accept a Difference Between Education and Knowledge?"

Those who served from this immediate area were Don Heath, Marie Bunch, Frances Isaacs, Juan Arriola, and Pauline Hartly.

DISCUSSING OPENING . . . Partners in the new Huff's Restaurant at 2125 Torrance Blvd. discuss opening day plans with local representatives of City of Hope, who will share opening proceeds. Left to right are Rick Jordan, who will manage the restaurant; Mrs. Myra Beeman and Glenn Kogor, City of Hope leaders here, and Robert Mason, partner in the new restaurant. City of Hope will receive all proceeds taken in at the cafe tomorrow from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

New Coffee Shop to Give Receipts to City of Hope

Scheduling a grand opening tomorrow and Saturday is the new Huff's Coffee Shop, 2125 Torrance Blvd., to be operated 24 hours a day. The coffee shop opened yesterday.

To call attention to the new dining spot, Partners Rick Jordan and Robert Mason have agreed to turn over all receipts between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. tomorrow to the City of Hope. The cashier for City of Hope will receive the money between those hours and it will all go to the nationally famous hospital in Duarte.

The new coffee shop, which was constructed at Torrance Blvd. and Arlington Ave. at a cost of about $120,000, can seat 67 comfortably, and will feature steak and seafoods on the menu in addition to sandwich and fountain items. Breakfast, which features a house specialty — blueberry hotcakes—will be served at all hours. Soft background music will be fed into the dining areas at all times, Jordan and Mason report. A continuously flowing punch bowl will be in operation tomorrow and Saturday during the grand opening celebration.
